What's New at Historic Sandusky

Entry Hall Restoration is Underway!

In the Sandusky entry hall, custom reproduction wallpaper has been installed, trim and walls have been painted, doors have been faux grained, and a reproduction whale oil argand lamp has been put up! Soon to come is a custom hand painted floorcloth.

Stop in to see the restoration in progress! To see more of the interior restoration now, visit our Facebook Page.

The History of Sandusky

Filming continues at Historic Sandusky for various projects highlighting Sandusky's place in history.

Reenactors and actors have volunteered to help in portraying scenes of David Hunter's occupation of Sandusky.

Above, George Hutter (Warren Walker) peers off of his front porch and sees the approaching union army in the distance. Below, 'Union Soldiers' meander on horseback through the side yard of Sandusky.

A Visit By Mr. Jefferson

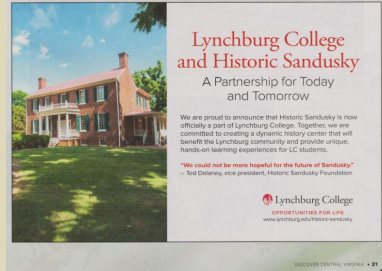

Sandusky was recently visited by Mr. Bill Barker, aka Thomas Jefferson. Mr. Barker is the leading Jefferson reenactor and spends most of his time as Jefferson at Colonial Williamsburg. Barker recently visited Sandusky as Thomas Jefferson to shoot footage for the upcoming documentary on the history of Sandusky. Jefferson was at the home in 1817 and dined with Charles Johnston.

Lynchburg College and Historic Sandusky

Historic Sandusky was featured in "Discover Central Virginia: Our Visual History", presented by The News & Advance.

The advertisement announced the formal partnership between Historic Sandusky and Lynchburg College. Sandusky is extremely excited for what is to come in our partnership with Lynchburg College.
